

Regulatory Alert: European Union (EU) Increases Duties on Certain US Goods

On March 12, 2025, the European Commission announced increase of tariffs on certain commodities originating from the United States. The measures will be introduced in two steps:

1. First, as of April 1, 2025 the measures adopted in 2018 and 2020 will be reinstated:
  - A number of commodities will be subject to increased duty when these goods are originating from the US.
  - The list goes beyond steel and aluminum products and includes commodities like motorcycles, jeans, bourbon and peanut butter.
  - The full list of commodities can be found in Annex I and II of Regulation (EU) 2018/724 of May 16, 2018, as amended, and Article 1 of Regulation (EU) 2020/502 of April 6, 2020.

This April 1, 2025 deadline has now been moved, see below.

2. Second, the Commission is taking steps towards additional measures to be in place as of April 13, 2025.
  - The Commission launched a two-week consultation with EU stakeholders.
  - The list of products that may be subject to possible measures has been published by the European Commission.
  - After consultation with the Member States, the adoption process will conclude and the act imposing the countermeasures will enter into force.

What has changed?

The reinstatement of the first round of tariffs on certain U.S. goods has been delayed from April 1, 2025 to April 15, 2025.

Timeline for implementation: April 15, 2025
